Re: Letter of Recommendation for Emily Edwards

To Whom It May Concern,

While attending law school in Cincinnati, Ohio, Emily Edwards watched my son 3-4 days a week. Essentially she performed the same duties as our nanny had done previously. I have known Emily since 2005. My wife and I were both pleased with her performance and how much energy she put into her work with our son. She fed, cleaned, cared for, and kept our son safe while my wife and I were working.

Although her duties were related to child care, her skills that she displayed while working for me and my wife are what I base this recommendation on. She took pride in her work, she fulfilled her commitment to us, and she did everything with which she was tasked. She is trustworthy, punctual, demonstrated integrity, and is proactive in everything she did for my wife and me with respect to our son. She is intelligent and learns quickly. Emily is very responsible, my wife and I had no concerns about her ability to take care of our 2 year old son. In short, Emily was a glowing example of what any employer would want.

Emily comes from a great family. Based on her performance in our home and her optimistic attitude, Emily will excel at anything she decides to do. If you have any questions with respect to this letter of recommendation, please don't hesitate to call me.

Best Regards,

Brad Christopherson
